

THE COUNTERFEITER

"I WILL BE LIKE THE MOST HIGH" were the words of Lucifer (now, the devil) as recorded in Isaiah 14:14. From that time until now, he has not retreated, deviated or been distracted from that initial goal and driving desire of wanting to be like God.

Because the devil can create nothing; much less any anything good or of worth, it is necessary for him to take the things of God and misuse them for his own advantage. Everything God does, the devil in some way seeks to imitate. His purpose in doing so ultimately is to obtain worship and to deceive man. In addition, he seeks to distort and to confuse the ways of God in both the believing and in the unbelieving world.
